

Lord's Prayer

Doxology and Amen

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Read John 3:3-7, John 18:36, Romans 8:26, James 1:6-7

For a more in depth look at the Catechism, you can read Luther's explanation in the Large Catechism found in the Book of Concord or online at

1. Watch the first part of the video where it talks about the doxology as a confession. What do you think the difference is between a confession and prayer?
2. Talk about how the Lord's Prayer results in a confession that "thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever and ever."
3. Watch the video and write down some of the things "Amen" means. What do they have in common?
4. When we say "Amen" we are saying our prayer is certain. What is our certainty in, or why are we certain?
5. With that certainty in mind, how do you think we should pray? Boldly, timidly, something else? Talk about your answer.
6. Read James 1:6-7. Talk about those verses and how they relate to the entire Lord's Prayer.
