

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

Week 3: Changes in the Church: Changes In Worship

In 16th century Europe, one of the markers of whether or not a congregation followed Luther's teaching was the way they conducted their worship service. Did they follow the traditions set forth by the Pope, or was something noticeably different? Luther made some significant changes to the worship service, but for some people the changes he made were dramatic and radical. Others didn't think he went far enough.
