

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

THE WORD ALONE

Luther's 95 Theses challenged and undermined the Pope's role as the final authority in matters of faith. Luther said the authority in the church was Christ, and the Word which came out of His mouth. Luther knew that all of Scripture witnesses to the fact that God goes to work in this world through speaking. And when God speaks, when Jesus speaks, things happen. Thus, the only thing a Christian can rely on, or trust, is God's speaking. The Word alone.
