

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

FAITH ALONE

As Luther grew more adept in the biblical languages, it became clear to him that in the Scriptures faith, trust, and belief are synonymous. It became equally clear to him that we don't control our faith -- God does. And all of Scripture testifies that it is only faith in the Gospel, Christ's forgiveness of your sin, that saves you. That can make people a little nervous, until they realize God is a giver, and the very thing he requires from us, He gives us: faith. Faith in Jesus alone and His promise is our salvation.
