

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

Week 3: Apart From The Law

One of the most shocking things the Apostle Paul wrote is that God makes us righteous apart from the law. (Romans 3:21) When Luther ran into this language, it profoundly impacted his theology, and his entire life. Why? Because Luther, like many Christians today, had been taught that God gave us the law so we could know what to do to improve our relationship with God. But that isn't at all what the Apostle Paul was saying. In fact, it was the opposite of what Paul wrote. To learn more about God making us righteous apart from the law, watch the video at lutherhouseofstudy.org.

LUTHER HOUSE OF STUDY
LUTHERHOUSEOFSTUDY.ORG

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

Week 3: Apart From The Law

One of the most shocking things the Apostle Paul wrote is that God makes us righteous apart from the law. (Romans 3:21) When Luther ran into this language, it profoundly impacted his theology, and his entire life. Why? Because Luther, like many Christians today, had been taught that God gave us the law so we could know what to do to improve our relationship with God. But that isn't at all what the Apostle Paul was saying. In fact, it was the opposite of what Paul wrote. To learn more about God making us righteous apart from the law, watch the video at lutherhouseofstudy.org.

LUTHER HOUSE OF STUDY
LUTHERHOUSEOFSTUDY.ORG