

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

Week 4: Sin And Sin Boldly

People who have hung around Lutherans for a long time have probably heard that Luther once wrote “Sin and sin boldly.” Did he really say that?! Yes he did. But there is more to the saying than meets the eye. We all know that every day we have to decide what to do and what not to do. This decision typically centers around the issue of good versus bad. Luther recognized that Scripture names all that we choose to do as full of sin; and sin is not looked favorably upon by God. So the question arises, “How, then, shall we live?” It is in this context that Luther gives his advice. To learn more about sinning boldly, watch the video at luther-houseofstudy.org.
