OBSERVING 500 YEARS

Week 4:

Means of Grace: A Sermon

It may surprise you to hear, but as much as anything else the Reformation was a preaching movement. How so? Luther recognized the authority of the church rests not in the Pope but in the Words of Christ, spoken by a preacher in a sermon. And that sermon is as simple as, “In the name of Christ, I forgive you all your sin.” No words of advice, no calls to action - just the simple naming and forgiving of your sin.
