Week 3: The Bible: Interpreting

Even amongst Christians who can agree on the importance of the Bible, there are a lot of different ideas about the interpretation of the Bible. Over the course of history, many people have thought that the Bible was something we are in charge of interpreting. Interestingly, Luther had a very different understanding. He said that we don't interpret the Bible, the Bible interprets us. Interpreting the Bible is something like looking in a mirror. It tells you who you are. Even more than a mirror, the Bible tells you to whom you belong.
