

THE REFORMATION

OBSERVING 500 YEARS

Week 3: Marriage & Family

For most people nowadays, getting married is an anticipated, even expected, change in their life circumstances. But this change was not one anyone expected Luther to make in his 40's. So why did Luther get married? Luther recognized that God's favor was found in getting married and having children; not in the vows of celibacy and other promises he made to God when he became a monk.
